PERMITS TO DATE

OCTOBER GIVES SMALL PROMISE OF BEING EQUAL TO THE RECORD OF LAST YEAR

As if the close approach of the presidential election were casting a shadow on activity in the building field October starts out by showing very poor indications of development in that line equal to the record of October last year. There have been issued sixteen permits to date and the total amount of value shown is $5080. However Joe Banker, the building inspector, is in hopes that the Methodist Episcopal building will fall into this month and that the total before the end of the month will show a vast increase.

Seven garages are being erected and the number of these buildings seems to grow each month in the most wonderful manner. It is little wonder that a recent state report said that there was an automobile for every fifty yards of California roads. The most valuable dwelling thus far being erected this month is a dwelling house by W. J. Clendenin at a cost of $1800. Another by N. M. Knaus is valued at $1600. The following are the permits:

James Neill is erecting a garage at a cost of $80, at 1226 Lomita avenue. The contractors are the Pacific Portable company.

J. M. Smith is making repairs at 309 North Louise, at a cost of $50. A. Anderson is the builder.

J. M. Smith is also making repairs at 314 North Maryland, at a cost of $50. A. Anderson is the contractor.

C. A. Redmond is building a garage at 1431 West Fifth street, at a cost of $50. He is his own contractor.

W. C. Taylor is building a garage at 1208 Chestnut street, at a cost of $50. He is his own contractor.

R. C. Church is building a garage at 1224 Milford street at an expense of $50. He also is his own contractor.

W. J. Clendenin is building a dwelling house at 1412 West Second street at a cost of $1800. The contractor is W. E. Boyd.

The Glendale Laundry is building a large garage at Arden and Columbus, at a cost of $200. The owner is contractor.

Jay Sisson is building at 762 South Louise, an addition to his dwelling house at a cost of $50. The contractor is J. N. Witham.

C. W. Gomel is building a garage at 1108 Chestnut street. W. Calkins is the contractor.

A. S. Dodge, 415 Verdugo road, is making a removal and repairs at a cost of $50.

A. W. Hoskins is building a chicken house at 1517 Ivy street, at a cost of $75. The contractor is E. G. Waltz.

Peter De Keyser is building a dwelling house at 924 Palmer avenue, at a cost of $500. He is his own contractor.

W. Marchant is building a dwelling house at 805 South Central, at a cost of $300.

N. M. Knaus is building a dwelling house at 1546 Penn street, at a cost of $1600. He is his own contractor.

J. H. Flower is building a garage at 730 South Adams, at a cost of $75. He is his own contractor.

TREE PLANTING

An interesting announcement was made at the Garden Society social on Thursday evening by Mrs. Ella Richardson, one of the directors, who is also curator of the civic section of the Tuesday afternoon club. Mrs. Richardson stated that November 11 would be observed as tree-planting day in Glendale. She asked the assistance and cooperation of members and friends of the Garden society in this most important phase of civic work. Not enough trees are planted in Glendale; the streets are still too barren of restful green. Public spirited citizens should do all in their power to assist the city in making of Glendale a bower of green.

CHAPTER B. A., OF P. E. O.

Chapter B. A., of P. E. O., held its regular all day meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Frank Arnold, 532 Orange Grove avenue. Every member was present. At the conclusion of the routine business the hostess assisted by Mrs. Freeman Kelley, served a delicious luncheon. Mrs. Walter Stamps and Miss Leta McCoy gave interesting talks on "California Missions" illustrated by means of a large map. The following members of Chapter L were present as visitors: Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. C. W. Burkett, Mrs. William Goss, Mrs. A. L. Bryant and Mrs. R. E. Chase. Mrs. Grant, sister of Mrs. Frank Arnold was also a visitor. The visitors gave interesting talks.

LOCAL COMMANDERY

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR ARE HOSTS AT VERY SUCCESSFUL GET ACQUAINTED AFFAIR

Glendale Commandery, No. 53, Knights Templar, gave a banquet on Friday night, for the purpose of bringing together the members of the commandery and non-affiliated members resident in the valley. About sixty sir knights and their ladies sat down to dinner at 6:30, in the large hall of the Masonic Temple. The arrangements for the banquet were in the hands of Charles Peckham who managed to provide a very acceptable and substantial entertainment. Thomas Ogg presented a program which was much appreciated. Eminent Commander Mattison B. Jones opened the program with a speech of greeting to the brethren and their guests. The program was as follows:

Violin and cornet duet, "Rose of My Heart," William Bode and J. T. Beach, accompanied by Alice Beach.

Vocal solo, "Amarella," (Winne). Miss Mattie Belle Provolt, accompanied by Miss Beach.

Reading, "Music Hath Power," (Written by Margaret Cameron). Miss Abbie C. Terry.

Piano, "Caprice," and "Burlesque," (Gabrilowith). "Liebesstraum." (Liszt). Miss Melicent Virden.

Vocal solos, "Picaninny Mine" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Frances Booth.

Vocal solos, "My Laddie," (Thayer). "Happy Song," (Del Riego). Mrs. J. R. Moyse.

After the program which was highly appreciated the knights and their guests enjoyed a pleasant social hour and got acquainted and in this way the purpose of the banquet and program was accomplished.

GLENDALE W. C. T. U.

Glendale W. C. T. U. met Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wood, 500 East Third street. The members were received in rooms tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, president of the society. Mrs. Vernon Cowsert conducted the devotional service. The amendments to be voted on November 7 were discussed. A musical program followed. Miss Ruth Palmer played in a masterly manner a violin solo entitled "In Castle Hall," by Edward F. Kearns. Miss Faith Tarling accompanied Miss Palmer on the piano. Miss Tarling also played Weber's "The Shepherd of Galilee," on the violin and Miss Palmer accompanied her. Mrs. H. E. Lovelace, who has been unable to attend the society during the past year on account of sickness was present and received the congratulations of her friends.

Mrs. Wood the hostess served chocolate and cakes in the course of the afternoon. The meeting adjourned to meet next Friday at the home of Mrs. John Paul, 533 Orange street.

PACKER RECEIVES ENCOURAGEMENT

From every section of the supervisoral district, Stephen C. Packer, candidate for supervisor, is receiving encouragement as to his chances for election on November 7. There is a something about the substantial and every day honest make up of Mr. Packer that wears well. He is not a politician, he is not one who practices schemes and plots that he may win in the election. He is merely a good, sensible business man, a man who thinks before he speaks, a man who is always loyal to his friends, and cherishes in his heart harm toward no one. People who wish to know more about the excellent qualifications of Mr. Packer as a citizen and as a man well fitted to fill the office which he seeks should inquire of those with whom he has had business dealings. As the time of the election draws nearer, Mr. Packer's popularity as a candidate grows stronger.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Friday evening, October 20, 1916, Mr. and Mrs. Parker of 450 West Broadway entertained with a surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Werner who celebrated the first anniversary of their marriage on that date. Besides the host and hostess and the guests of honor there were present Miss Alma Griffin, Mack Ervin, Mrs. Sarah Donegan, Miss H. Jones, Miss Gertie Smith, Mr. Heidt, Mr. and Mrs. Stickle.

MEXICAN REBEL FORCES PUT DE FACTO MEN TO FLIGHT IN DECISIVE BATTLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

EL PASO, Oct. 21.—Villa forces met the Carranzistas in a decisive battle Friday, just outside of Chihuahua. Villa's men, who had been reinforced by various bands took the initiative and drove hard against the Carranzistas. The Carranzistas fought desperately. They were well supplied with field guns and machine guns, but the Villistas charged them so fiercely that they gave way and retreated leaving a large number of their guns in the hands of the enemy.

Their drive has carried them through the villages of Brod and Velyoselo and given them a large portion of territory north of the Cerna river. The Bulgarians are contesting the advance toward Monastir with great determination.

C., reported the matter to the American ambassador in London this morning.

GERMANS SEEK TO REGAIN THE INITIATIVE

KAISER LAUNCHES REPEATED FIERCE ATTACKS IN THE REGION OF THE SOMME

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Oct. 21.—The Germans are making frantic efforts to regain the initiative in the Somme. Despite the severe weather they have launched attack after attack against both the British and the French, within the past few days. Their expenditure of ammunition has exceeded any record they have yet made in that respect. The Germans made an unsuccessful attempt to regain the Schwaben redoubt. The heavy rain is hindering operations.

WILSON PLEASED WITH RECENT TOUR

PRESIDENT IS PREPARING FOR FINAL DASH INTO NEW YORK BEFORE ELECTION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONG BRANCH, Oct. 21.—President Wilson is back at his fine residence, Shadow Lawn, after what he considers a most successful trip. The campaign he says is going just as he would have it. Ohio, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin are in excellent shape and will probably go Democratic, he thinks. He will now rest for a few days before making his final rush into New York.

AT GLENDALE HIGH

SENIOR ARE AFTER CUP—STAFF FOR 1917 STYLUS HAS BEEN SELECTED

"Seniors! Ray, ray, ray, cup!" was the tune which was heard to emerge from the '17 corner yesterday. It may be inferred from this that the Seniors want the cup this year. Well, who can blame them? It might also be stated quite surely that they are not the only class who would be just tickled to death to have the cup this year.

This incident is only the forerunner of what promises to be the keenest of interclass rivalry for athletic honors that Glendale has ever seen. So early a display of enthusiasm is a sure indication of a lively struggle.

As the result of yesterday's election of student body officers Herbert Scheuner is president and Leone Shattuck secretary of Glendale High school's self government. Student affairs should soon be in full sway.

The weekly assembly yesterday was featured by some excellent music. The girls glee club this year is better than ever before. Several announcements were made. The T. O. C. must refrain from rough games, which endanger the lives of U. S. citizens. A prohibition club has been formed with Dan Hagin, president, Florence Kenworthy, vice president; Willard Learned, secretary; Sam McKee, treasurer and Elwood Ingledue, campaign manager. The Democrats were asked to meet for a discussion of the Wilson rally next Friday. There were also other minor announcements.

In a spirited Senior class meeting which lasted till nearly 5 o'clock the following staff was elected for this year's Stylus:

Harold Venske, editor in chief.
Mona Butler, assistant editor.
Olin Wilson, business manager.
Paul Williams, Assistant business manager.
Earl Brown, advertising manager.
Lynden Keyes, assistant advertising manager.
Marjorie Imler, society editor.
William Balthis, athletic editor.
Ernestine Lyons, alumni editor.
Lehman Crandall, class editor.
Catherine Phillips, snapshot editor.
Margaret Boucher, organizations editor.
Evangeline Hunchburger, departments editor.
Maxwell Sherriger, photo editor.
Kenneth Beldin, joke editor.

"Ar" West created a sensation at this meeting by resigning his nomination in favor of Evangeline Hunchberger.

George U. Moyse yesterday afternoon addressed an enthusiastic group of mothers at the Acacia street school. Mr. Moyse took for his subject "Cycology for Parents." His experience as an educator especially fits him to speak on the relation between the school, the child and the home. After this interesting talk everyone present declared that something worth while had been learned.

PRIVATE PICTURE EXHIBIT

What proved to be a most interesting affair took place Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Shriner, 617 North Louise street, when a number of people from out of town and residents on Louise street were present at a private view of pictures painted by Harry G. Shriner, a noted artist and brother of George Shriner. The pictures included a large portrait of the late Bishop Conaty, a portrait of Cheney the California poet, and a portrait of the artist's father.

The landscapes were of great interest. They included a "Scene on the Coast at La Jolla," some pictures of the desert in the vicinity of Needles, and interesting bits of scenery between Yuma and Needles. Another striking picture was a lake left on the desert after a flood had subsided. Others were "Sunlight on the Desert," "Moonlight on the Desert," and "Princess Louise Inlet," a striking scene 499 miles north of Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. Shriner, the artist, spent twelve years studying in Europe. The pictures are on view again Saturday evening. Afterward they will be exhibited in the famous picture gallery of the Glenwood Mission Inn.

ART AND TRAVEL SECTION

The Art and Travel section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will meet at the home of the curator, Mrs. Chas. M. Turck, 521 North Glendale avenue, Tropico, Monday afternoon at 2:30. This is enrollment day and a large attendance is desired.

ARMENIAN RELIEF

LOCAL COMMITTEE TAKES UP WORK TO SAVE PERISHING NATION

At the request of congress, President Wilson by proclamation, has designated today and tomorrow, October 21 and 22, as Armenian and Syrian relief days. In all the principal cities throughout the country committees have been formed to cooperate with the national committee whose headquarters are at 70 Fifth avenue, New York. On this New York committee appear such names as Henry Morgenthau, John R. Mott, Frank Mason North, Norman Hapgood, Fred B. Fisher, James Cardinal Gibbons; Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, Dr. Charles S. Macfarland, Oscar S. Strauss and a large number of other men equally prominent in religious, political, philanthropic and commercial circles. Members of this committee pay the expenses of the committee's work thus making it possible for every dollar contributed to relief work to be applied to that end.

The misery, sickness, starvation, brutality and ruthless slaughter in connection with the European war find their climax in Armenia. The tragedies of Belgium, Poland and Servia were terrible but the black horror of Armenia cannot be told.

A United States consul reported that he saw refugees brained with clubs because they, when starving, crowded their guards for food.

Armenian professors in American colleges, with university degrees from European and American universities were tortured by pulling out their hair and beard and their finger nails, by hanging them up by the arms for hours, and by beating. They were afterwards killed.

Comely women and girls have been in great numbers forcibly taken into Mohammedan harems. The men have been taken outside the villages, towns and cities in bands and killed. They have been crowded on board boats and the boats made targets for artillery. On one occasion 10,000 Armenians were thus killed.

The women and children are in terrible destitution. They are eating grass and roots and picking grain seeds from the filth of the streets. They are killing and eating the dogs in the streets. Turkish brutality and hate have been vented upon Armenian women and girls with a fiendishness undescribable. There are thousands of orphans scattered through the country. Dead bodies pollute the atmosphere. Of the 2,000,000 Armenians at the beginning of the Turkish atrocities 850,000 have been massacred, died of wounds, disease or exhaustion and the survivors are in entire destitution and dying of sickness and starvation.

Former Ambassador Henry Morgenthau and others competent to judge say that $5,000,000 will be needed at once to care for these people.

A local committee has been organized to help in this relief work. Ed M. Lee of the First National bank will act as treasurer and will be glad to receive contributions to the fund any time during the next week.

Other members of the committee are Professor H. L. Howe, Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, Dr. I. H. Durfee, John Cole, A. T. Cowan, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Rev. E. H. Willisford, Mrs. F. E. Hagin, Dr. A. L. Bryant, J. E. Henderson, Mrs. R. L. Lacey.

GOOD TEMPLARS MEET

The Glendale lodge of Good Templars held their regular meeting Friday evening, October 20, in the Odd Fellows hall. About thirty-five members were present and four candidates Mrs. Laura Jones, Merton Noyes, George Noyes and Floyd Reed were initiated. After the regular business session officers for the following year were elected. Mrs. Mary Fancett was elected Chief Templar; Robert Taylor, Past Chief Templar; Mabel Robbins, Vice Templar; Tempa Wilkes, Secretary; Frank Jepson, financial secretary; Victor Carr, treasurer; Odin Askeland, marshal; Barbara Askeland, guard; May Jepson, organist; W. E. Tower, superintendent temperance education, Mrs. Gaylord, electoral superintendent; Mrs. Nettie Turner, reporter; Alice Watson, lodge deputy.

The district lodge will have a float in the dry parade to be held in Los Angeles and Glendale members will take part. Plans were made for this event. Mrs. Laura Jones rendered a beautiful piano solo, J. P. Fancett read the lodge paper and Mrs. Gaylord and Mrs. Harrell sang a duet.

SAVING THE ARMENIAN PEOPLE

Armenia, as a nation, is in danger of perishing from the face of the earth. The Armenians are among the earliest Christians of Europe. They have held faithfully to their creed throughout the vicissitudes of many centuries. They have never swerved from persecution nor sought to save their lives by becoming Mohammedans. This is one of the grievances the Turks have against them; but as they are extremely good business people and were a source of wealth to the Turks their nation was only kept down by an occasional massacre and their young women occasionally carried off to Turkish harems. The majority of the women, however, made themselves obnoxious to the Turks by branding their foreheads with the sign of the cross.

When the New Turks or Young Turks as they are often called entered the European war on the side of Germany they realized that there were two million Armenians who would be left in their rear on the hills of Asia Minor. Those Armenians were Christians; the Turks were Mohammedans and their enemies in front were Christians. They did not believe in leaving other Christians in their rear, so they determined to destroy the whole Armenian race.

Missionaries who have returned from that unfortunate country have told in pitiful detail of the manner in which their schools were emptied of their scholars who were then promptly deported, the young girls being saved for a an evil fate and the younug boys and young men being murdered. The country was a land of fine schools for the Armenians with their mental sharpness saw the advantage of American education Their schools are now deserted. Under the pretense that political exigencies demanded that the Armenians be deported they were removed from all the little towns and cities perched on the hills of Asia Minor, to the desert. Of the 2,000,000 inhabitants, 750,000 were beheaded, shot, drowned and forced into the arid desert to starve to death.

It has been verified beyond a doubt that 10,000 Armenians were used as targets by the coast forts. It is also literally true that the prisons were emptied of criminals and the women and children were turned over to those criminals for destruction at a place appointed by the Turkish government. Of the two millions, more than a million escaped partly through the presence of Russian troops which moved toward Turkey across Asia Minor.

These unfortunate creatures were naked and still are; they are without food or shelter and are dying from starvation at the rate of 1500 a day. It is possible to save a remnant of them and thus form a nucleus to build up the nation once more. It has been determined to save this remnant. The Christian churches of the United States have taken the matter in hand and today, Saturday, October 21, and tomorrow, Sunday, October 22, have been appointed by the president of the United States, as special days for taking up subscriptions for this most deserving task.

This is not the work of any one religious body. It is the work of every Christian church in the United States. Every Christian is asked to aid the Federal Council of the Christian Churches In America to make this effort a success. Five million dollars will be sufficient to save the remnant of the Armenians and California is expected to take a leading part in the work. Churches, Sunday schools, business men and individuals are putting their shoulders to the wheel and the funds necessary should be raised without difficulty. In order to give ample opportunity to the people of Glendale to aid, Ed Lee, of the First National Bank of Glendale has consented to take subscriptions throughout the week and to keep the lists in the bank for that purpose.

HIGH COST OF LIVING

By the announcement that flour would cost $9:30 a barrel henceforth until the next rise in price the attention of the inhabitants of Southern California has been attracted to the constantly increasing price of living in the United States. This is, of course, partly caused by the exportation of food to Europe and to another extent by the advantage taken of the war conditions to advance prices arbitrarily.

In countries taking part in the war the governments long ago issued orders regarding prices and regulation of the cost of food has been the only thing that has stood between the people and famine. In Canada the index number of wholesale prices in December, 1913, stood at 133.5; by December, 1915, it had risen to 161.1 and whereas a weekly budget of food for a family of a given size averaged $7.42 in July, 1914, it had risen to $8.13 in December, 1915, and had increased to $8.63 in August, 1916. It is still going up.

Statistics are not at hand in the United States as to the ratio of increase, but the increase is going on steadily. The unfortunate comparative failure of the wheat crops both in this country and in Canada have given opportunity to the sellers to squeeze the farmer on one hand and the consumer on the other. There is also every indication that the flour mills will continue to advance the price of flour and the bakers the price of bread until conditions of positive distress prevail if something be not done to prevent this.

It is seriously puzzling political economists also to know what can be done to prevent the constant rise in food values. It is seriously proposed to put an embargo on the export of food to the warring countries and specially to prevent the export of grain and flour. Undoubtedly the duty of a country is first to its own people. The feeding of outside nations should not be conducted at the expense and loss of our own people.

Whether it will be possible to get legislation carrying out this idea is doubtful. There are so many interests at work to promote the advance of prices that it is uncertain if any satisfactory measure could be engineered through congress dealing with this subject. Meantime the prices go upwards.

Prince Henry of Mecklenburg, is suffering the usual indignities to which prince consorts have always been subjected. Prince Henry is the husband of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland—only that and nothing more. It will be remembered that in the first year of their marriage the royal consort was accused of maltreating his royal spouse. The stories went the rounds of the American newspapers at the time and the Chicago Daily News sent a special commissioner to hunt up the truth. This commissioner found that the stories had really no foundation having been manufactured by an impecunious news paragrapher in an obscure inn in Brussels and in other out-of-the-way places. However the royal husband has never been popular in Holland. The Dutch look with suspicion on him because he is a German and he is carefully excluded from the national counsels. He knows none of the secrets of state and only the other day was astonished to learn that the queen had been out in one of the new submarines Holland is building to protect her coasts from either British or German encroachments. He has been made chief of the Red Cross work so that he may have something to do but even there he is subject to orders of General Schneider, chief of the general staff.

Mrs. C. H. Munson of Orange street motored to Elsinore, Saturday to visit friends.

City Marshal E. A. Lawrence is the owner of a new Ford roadster. Beware and not exceed the speed limit.

The Rev. Fenwick Holmes of Venice was a guest at dinner Friday at the home of the Rev. E. H. Willisford, 231 Orange street.

Mrs. J. C. May and the two children are down from Victorville to spend a few days with Mrs. H. Force and Mrs. Van Fleet.

Ruth Palmer, Faith Tarling and Mrs. O. S. Palmer are in Los Angeles today and will attend the concert given by Mischa Elman, the celebrated violinist at Trinity auditorium.

Mrs. P. S. McNutt of Sycamore Canyon is and has been seriously ill for the past two weeks and confined to her bed. Her many friends are hoping for her speedy recovery.

Miss Veta Franklin, who is residing at Long Beach, while attending the University of Southern California, is spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin, at 1489 West Third street.

Eugene Imler, Homer Bullard, W. Renshaw, Marjorie Imler, Evangeline Hunchberber and Catherine Renshaw go Saturday evening to Throop college, Pasadena, to attend a dance that is being given by the students there. They will be taken over by J. G. Hunchberger in his auto.

Mrs. J. M. Banker, 231 Cedar street and Mrs. W. G. Shaw, Mr. Banker's sister, who is here on a visit from Colorado, have gone to Long Beach, where they will spend the week end. Mr. Banker will join them Sunday. Mrs. Shaw at one time owned property in Long Beach and has a wide circle of friends there.

The Sisterhood class of the M. E. church will have a social gathering with cafeteria lunch on Monday, October 23, at 6:30 at the residence of Mrs. C. W. Ingledue, 725 West third street. Good program. Come bring your husbands and friends and have a general good time.

R. A. Petersen of 439 South Adams street, has just received an interesting account from Minonk, Ill., of the opening of the Filger library there. This library was dedicated October 10, at a public reception, which was largely attended. David Filger was well known in Glendale, where he usually spent a considerable part of the year. He built the Filger building which is opposite the city hall. Mrs. Petersen is a niece of David Filger. Her sister Miss Stella Filger resides with her. The memory of Mr. Filger and his work were respectfully spoken of at the opening of the library in Minonk. The president of the library board told how Mr. Filger had donated the lot to the city and also given $5000 to build and equip the library. One feature of the Filger library is two rest rooms which are for the use of everyone, including strangers. The library is a fine building and a fitting memorial of Mr. Filger, who during his lifetime took deep interest in education and the improvement of the community.

LECTURE ON YOSEMITE

Before an audience that was numerous and most appreciative the Rev. Fenwick Holmes of the Congregational church at Venice gave a brilliant lecture on "Camping in the Yosemite." The lecture was illustrated by more than 100 stereopticon views of different points in the valley. The different falls and peaks, the canyons and the streams were shown in picturesque representation and the whole was lighted up by the wit and humor of the lecture itself. Mr. Holmes kept his audience in the very best of humor and everyone was delighted.

A musical program was given before the lecture. Mrs. Greely Kolts sang several songs in good style and with much feeling and expression. Mrs. Cowen of Burbank also sang several songs which were much appreciated. Mrs. R. A. Puffer accompanied the singers on the piano.

Much interest was taken by the audience in the performance of the new ladies' quartet, consisting of Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke, Mrs. A. R. Chappell, Mrs. S. R. Frazee and Mrs. Bullinger. This group of accomplished singers gave several pieces with much acceptance. They were accompanied by Mrs. L. P. Abell.

NOW PLEADS IS PAUPER

Although once rated a millionaire, Charles A. Elder, former president of the Los Angeles Investment company, and under sentence for misuse of the mails in connection with the operation of the concern, plead before the United States Circuit Court in San Francisco, that he is now a pauper, and has no funds wherewith to carry on the appeal of his case, now pending. He asked that the government bear the expense of his appeal.

Elder is under a sentence of fifteen months in San Quentin, following his conviction on the charge.

VALLEY VIEW

H. W. James and family have come back from Balboa to spend a few weeks in their own home at 1555 Penn street.

Mrs. J. Laws and her three daughters, Misses Violet, Alma and Muriel Turner, have moved into Mrs. Sternberg's house at 1446 Vine.

Colorado street is still speeders' paradise in Glendale. Motorcycles and autos frequently are observed flying along at fifty miles an hour or more. Only last evening a big car driven by a reckless boy was observed careening west on this street at not far from fifty miles an hour and he only laughed as he narrowly missed running down a pet dog.

Houses in this part of the city are gradually filling up but still there are several more vacant ones.

A reception was given last evening at the parsonage to Rev. Norcross, the able young minister of the Methodist church. This was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by all.

The protest voiced before the council Thursday evening against the excessive cost of the Pacific avenue improvement is concurred in by every one we have heard speak of it. As the contractor's price was but 78½ cents a front foot and the assessments were for 87½ cents and more.

QUOTING THE GREAT

With a little patience you can collect quotations from eminent and virtuous men in behalf of almost any proposition. What, for example, should you say about a man who recommended bigamy to two monarchs who sought his spiritual advice, who justified slavery, who so detested all ideas savoring of democracy that he said the common people of the world were Satan? or, again, although having declared that princes were generally the "biggest fools and worst rascals on earth," said he would rather bear with a princely government that did wrong than with a people that did right? That man was Martin Luther, whose testimony still illumines the world as to certain matters concerning which he was especially enlightened, but who as to many other matters merely delivered the common opinion of his day.

HAVE YOU OBSERVED

That the time to reduce balances and educate customers to terms is the time of prosperity? When the tide begins to ebb, and there comes a wave of depression there are usually failures. Money is hard to get, and general observance of regular terms is almost impossible.

That if you form your opinions off-hand without knowing all the facts, you are apt to blow up unwarrentedly? Better investigate first, then blow up, if advisable.

PAY A LITTLE MORE AND GET

A LOT MORE

Don't put a mortgage on your judgment in buying a car.

There's many a man in this county who paid too low a price for his car—and lived to regret the day.

I am not saying anything against low-priced cars. There are a number of good ones. They do the job well.

I am trying to get people to get a bird's-eye view of the motor car situation instead of a worm's-eye view.

Sometimes by paying a hundred or two hundred more you get $500 extra value.

I refer now to the 1917 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers. Here's a car that has been run more that 1,000,000 miles in the hands of owners, yet attained a service record of 99.21 per cent perfect.

That is the mark of a great car. And though it costs, possibly, a little more than you ever paid for a car before—remember that extra little sum gets you from the zone of a FAIR car to the zone of a GREAT car.

It is not only money in your pocket in the long run, but pride everywhere you drive. There's a pleasant and interesting satisfaction in driving a regular car.

Price $1090 Detroit—really a $1400 value.

AS TO FLOORS

"Would you like the floors in mosaic?" asked the architect.

The Springfield man looked dubious.

"Would you like the floor in mosiac patterns?"

"I don't know so much about that" he finally said. "I ain't got any prejudice against Moses as a man, and maybe he knew a lot about the law. As regards laying floors though, I kinder think I'll rather have them unsectarian."—Harper's Weekly.

A heap of cackle now and then
Will sell goods to the best of men
But best of goods not advertised
Will never help a man to thrive.

FRIENDSHIP

Friendship does not lie nor seek its own. Friendship bears long, though it is very frank; friendship feels no envy and hesitates at no sacrice.

In the heat and hurry of credit work, with its uncertainties and many disappointments, when men are falling short of high standards and stooping to the meanest practices that they may save or make a few dollars, for the credit man to know that there is such a thing a friendship and to recognize its uplifting qualities, is a great boon and comfort, and he must say as we say, that nothing in all the world is as fine as to have or to be a friend.—J. H. Tregoe.

Sunday Services at the Churches

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Corner Third and Louise streets. Vernon H. Cowsert, Pastor.

Bible school 9:30 a. m., Will M. Wright, Superintendent. Organized classes for all ages.

Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. on "Practical Uses of Prayer".

Senior and Junior Union at 6:30 p. m. The latter meets in Primary class room.

At 7:30 p. m. Al Jennings, who was led to the Lord under the ministry of our late pastor, J. H. Troy, will occupy the pulpit.

A sunny Sabbath home to which you are cordially invited.

There will be special music at both services. In the morning Miss Josephine Fletcher of Los Angeles will sing, Professor Lowinsky playing an obligato. Professor Lowinsky has also promised to play at the evening service. There will be other special music.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. H. E. Wilhite will preach again at both services tomorrow. This will be welcome news to all who heard him a week ago, because he certainly did make a hit with this congregation. Mr. Wilhite is surely a live, enthusiastic evangelist and is afire with love for souls and the church. His sermons last Lord's Day were just what was needed to arouse a deep interest in the work of the church at the beginning of the fall and winter campaign, and a continuance of this good work tomorrow will increase the enthusiasm.

It will be impossible to announce the subjects of the sermons, because Mr. Wilhite has so many that he frequently waits till he sees the audience before deciding what his theme will be. You will miss a religious treat, however, if you fail to be present at both services.

Mr. Emerson who was announced to speak tomorrow is so occupied with his field work in the interest of "California Dry" that it is doubtful whether he will be able to preach here before the election. It is possible we may be able to secure him for November 5.

Invite your friends to be with you at the Bible school tomorrow at 9:30. Under the new leadership of Mrs. Hutton it is taking on renewed interest. Christian Endeavor hour is 6:30, preceded by mission study at 6 o'clock.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, holds services in their church edifice, corner Second and Maryland avenue, Sunday morning at 11. Subject Sunday, October 22, "Probation After Death."

Sunday school is held at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening testimony meeting at 8.

Reading room 415½ S. Brand boulevard open daily, except Sundays and holidays, from 12 M. to 4 p. m.

WEST GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH

C. A. Norcross, Pastor. Sunday morning the pastor will speak from the subject, "Sifted for Service." This will be the first of two sermons from the life of Gideon. The evening sermon will be from the subject, "Songs in the Night." Good congregations greeted the pastor last Sunday at both services. You will enjoy the rousing song service before the evening sermon. Epworth League will be led by Miss Jones. Young folks will be there. Sunday school will be a fine place to commence the day right. A welcome to all who have no place to worship.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Interest continues to grow in the series of sermons which the pastor is now giving.

Tomorrow's sermons promise to be of special value. 11:00 a. m., "The Psalms in Daily Life" is the sermon theme. Few realize what a large place the Psalms have had in the public and private life of nations and people.

7:30 p. m. "Bad Reading and Bad Health." Dr. Willisford finds that very few people realize how their physical health is effected by their reading. He will give a number of most striking instances which illustrate how not only morals but physical health is vitally effected by the stuff people read.

9:45 a. m. The Sunday school assembles. Classes for all.

The Juniors meet at 6:15 p. m. and the Intermediate at 6:30 p. m. Both these societies are doing good work.

The doors of this church stand wide open to all, strangers and those without church connections are most welcome.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the delegates that attended the California Lutheran synod at Long Beach this week, will bring words of cheer and interest from the reports there given. The subject will be "Convention Tidings." All who wish to get more acquainted with the Lutheran work in this state and understand it better in its scope and efficiency, are invited to attend this service.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The pastor will preach both morning and evening. Morning topic "The Indwelling God," 11 o'clock. Sabbath school 9:30. Junior Endeavor 3 p. m.

C. E. meeting, 6:15.

Evening service 7:30. Topic, "Gideon's Fleece of Wool."

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

"California Prosperity League Unmasked or the Brewer's Call for Help" will be the subject for the evening sermon at the First Methodist church on Sunday, October 22. This will be a message all should hear. If you are being influenced by a conjure word you need this message.

This is the people's church and all are always welcome.

At the morning church hour the pastor will speak on "Christianity Under the Acid Test."

WHEN THE RAIN IS OVER

When the rain is over,
When the clouds have pass'd,
And the golden sunshine
Beams again at last;
All the earth is fairer,
Ev'ry freshened flow'r
Lifts its head to answer:
"Thank you, little show'r!"

When the show'r is over,
When the rain is done,
Nature's all the sweeter,
Brighter shines the sun!

When the tears are over
When the pain has pass'd,
And the smiles and dimples
Come again at last;
Never mind the bruises,
Laugh away the fears;
Answer like the flowers:
"Thank you, little tears!"

When the tears are over,
Smiles come back again;
Life is all the sweeter
For the drops of rain!

NOT THE FOREMAN

The new foreman was a hustler. Nothing escaped his eagle eye, and whenever he saw a workman suffering from a tired feeling he quickly woke him up.

So when he discovered a bricklayer snatching a quiet pipe behind a wheelbarrow his wrath arose.

"What do you think you're paid for? Get on with your job if you don't want to get fired pretty sharp!"

"All right, boss," rejoined the workman. "Keep your 'air on. Rome wasn't built in a day, you know."

"That may be," replied the hustler. "But I wasn't foreman of that job."

"Why didn't you send your man to mend my electric bell?"

"He did go, madam; but, as he rang three times and got no answer he concluded that there was nobody at home."—London Opinion.
